

Fruit of the Spirit

Galatians 5:22-23

in the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

First, read the passage from St. Paul's letter to the Galatians to determine the fruit of the Spirit. The passage highlights the characteristics that develop in a person who is guided by the Holy Spirit. These qualities are presented as a unified "fruit" rather than separate entities. They are seen as evidence of a life lived in accordance with God's will.

After identifying the nine fruit, place them in the word-cross puzzle below (one word is hyphenated, and the hyphen takes up one block just as a letter does).
